((My Dear Parents)),

I am Dũng. I am now sitting on top of a hill looking toward my native village and writing this letter to you and all members of the family. God bless all of you.

My dear parents, what I write here expresses the happiness of a man who has been released from jail, and at this time, as I watch the Front's flag fluttering in the sky over Huế citadel, I am elated. My hatred toward the henchmen has increased greatly. I have never submitted. Myself and all of my comrades are glad of our victories. I continue to implement missions to destroy the US, their henchmen, and the traitorous clique. I have successfully accomplished missions assigned to me by higher echelons.

I know that mother, father, and all of of my brothers and sisters are worried about me. But please, set your minds at ease. I will come back home some day to see you.

Father! How is the rice field now? You had better tell Brother Mối to plant more sweet potatoes and manioc in order to help support our family. Concerning my wife, if she does something wrong, will you please forgive her.

How is little Quang now? Is he better than before? When he came to see me last time he was so tall. And how about Baby Sinh? Is he fat or like little Quang before?

I heard that Brother M<sup>o</sup>i was arrested many times before T<sup>é</sup>t. Can he do anything now? I think he had better plant more sweet potatoes and manioc. How is little girl L<sup>ê</sup>p, little boy Lu<sup>â</sup>n, and niece Nh<sup>u</sup> Lan?

Is Sister Mi<sup>ê</sup>n better than before? How about her children? Does Brother Th<sup>ô</sup>ng have any troubles?

Ph<sup>u</sup> Hai

Dear Mother and Father,

I am D<sup>u</sup>ng. I am writing this letter to inquire about you and my brothers and sisters.

My dear parents, I and my comrades-in-arms were very happy to have been released from jail. I am delighted to see the flag of the Front fluttering in the sky over Hu<sup>ê</sup>' citadel. This is a great victory for our people and army. I will always hate the enemy.

When I come back home, I will tell you of our attacks against Hu<sup>ê</sup>' City. Nothing can make us happier than our victories.

PERSONAL HISTORY STATEMENT.

I the undersigned, Văn Đình Quế, am 32 years old, a native of Phong Lai, Quang Điện, Thừa Thiên, and reside in Đường Xuân Hạ, Hương Thủy, Thừa Thiên. My father's name is Văn Đình Chuẩn. He was a laborer in the Otorhinolaryngology Section of Huế Hospital (died of old age). My mother's name is Giang Thị Chung, 73 years old, a native of Thái Bình Province, Hanoi.

Education:

I have an elementary school diploma. My wife is Hồ Thị Mai, 32 years old, a trader, a native of Thu Le, Khuon Pho Sia. She resides in Đường Xuân Thượng, Hương Thủy, Thừa Thiên. My father-in-law is Hồ Đăng Duyệt, and my mother-in-law is Thái Thị Sen, a trader.

I have six children: Văn Đình Qui, 10 years old; Văn Đình Quỳnh, eight years old; Văn Đình Quang, six years old; Văn Đình Quyền, four years old; Văn Thị Mỹ, two years old; and Văn Thị Nga, one year old.

I have six brothers and sisters.

1. Văn Thị Nguyễn, 45 years old, a trader. Her husband is Nguyễn Đắc Thông, a Senior Sergeant and also manager of an Officer's Club located at 12A Nguyễn Hoàng Street, Huế.
2. Văn Thị Trở, 43 years old, a housekeeper. Her husband is Đỗ Trọng An, Buddhist sutra lecturer of Đức Từ Cung ((sic)), living in Đường Xuân Hạ Village, Hương Thủy, Thừa Thiên.
3. Văn Thị Yên is 40 years old, a housekeeper. Her husband is Phan Thanh Dung, a teacher at the French Education Center in Saigon.
4. Văn Thị Bê is 37 years old, a housekeeper. Her husband is a laborer in Hue Hospital.

He resides in Đường Xuân Hạ Village, Hương Thủy, Thừa Thiên.

5. Văn Thị Canh is 35 years old, a trader. Her husband is Nguyễn Kim Tinh, a policeman in Đà Nẵng. They reside in Đường Xuân Hạ, Hương Thủy, Thừa Thiên.
6. Văn Đình Tung was a First Lieutenant. He graduated from the Dalat Officer Academy, and was killed in Quang Ngãi. His wife is Lê Thị Dư and his son is named Văn Đình Giang Thanh. After his death, they returned to 56 Lê Lợi ((Street)), Kontum.

II. POLITICAL BACKGROUND: When I was young, I went to Đường Xuân Thượng Primary School and passed the primary examination in 1954. I studied two years at Nguyễn Tri Phương High School, then attended a first-aid training course at the Huế Central Hospital for one year and was issued a graduation certificate. When I was 19 years old, I worked for the Lành Mạnh magazine of Huế Hospital as a clerk. Doctor Lê Khắc Quyền was the editor. After one year, I received an order to report for military service. I was transferred to the Regional Force and worked as a medic in the dispensary at Luc Bô Street, Huế Citadel. After working there for two years, I became ill with a serious heart disease and was sent to the Huế Hospital for treatment. I shared a hospital room with Sergeant Cung. After one year, I failed a medical examination before the military medical council, and was given a medical discharge in 1962. Staying home for three years, I rested, raised pigs and chickens, and took care of my children while my wife worked as a trader to support my three children. In 1965, Doctor Lê Khắc Quyên, Director of the Hospital, gave me a job as laborer ((at the hospital)), grade D1, with a salary of 3,050$ ((SVN)) per month including family allowances (for my wife and three children). In 1967, after fathering three more children, I was promoted to day worker, ((grade)) C1, and got 6,320$ ((SVN)) per month including family allowances for my wife and six children. I was assigned to the first-aid telephone office and was responsible for four Red Cross ambulances and four drivers who worked in the same office. Each ambulance was alternately on duty every day to receive patients in the city and in the suburbs when the people request.

III. In 1963 ((sic)), during the period of resistance against the French, I worked as a liaison agent for Tôn Thất Chanh. He and high level cadre were stationed at Mrs. Am Sáu's house in Xóm Hồ, Dưỡng Tinh Hamlet. When the front was discovered, they withdrew to war zones. At that time I was young and still in school. I was assigned by Nguyễn Văn Quê, a 12th class student in Quốc Học ((Huế)) school to disseminate leaflets demanding the general election. After that, Quê and I were arrested by public security agents of the Diem regime, and we were sent to the public security prison. During three months in the prison, we were barbarously tortured and after that we were released. ~~Until~~ 1967, under the leadership of my father-in-law, Hồ Duyệt, who lived in Thuận Hà Hamlet, I continued to receive missions assigned by Comrade Thanh Tinh. I was responsible for keeping abreast of the situation of Huế City and in areas where the Puppet and US troops were stationed. In addition, I kept track of activities of doctors, medics, laborers, and tyrants in the Huế hospital. Then I submitted reports on their activities to my father-in-law sent them to higher echelons. We kept on operating secretly until the Revolution burst out. Since that day, the first day of the Lunar New Year, I felt enthusiastic in carrying out my missions. From 3 Feb 68 to date I have worked at the surgical company and devoted all my energies to serving the Revolution. I followed good examples, and avoided and corrected all my shortcomings. I have been determined to work for the Revolution and defeat the US and the Thiệu-Kỳ clique in order to gain complete victory and seize power for the people.

Relatives working for the Revolution:

My nephew Văn Đình Thuận, lived in Nguyệt Biều. My cousin Văn Đình Tế, also lived in Nguyệt Biều, and regrouped ((to NVN)) in 1955. He was in Cambodia and Laos in 1960.

Wife's Relatives: Hồ Đăng Sanh, my brother-in-law, regrouped ((to NVN)) in 1955, Hồ Đăng Lương ((aka Xuân)), my young brother-in-law, joined the Revolution in 1967. I swear that the above statements are true. I will be responsible for my false statements.
